O R D E R:

In the reference 1st read above, Departmental Proceedings have been initiated against Sri G. Panduranga Rao, Deputy Transport Commissioner under Rule 20 of the Andhra Pradesh Civil Services (Classification, Control & Appeal) Rules, 1991 on the allegations that he has failed to exercise proper supervision over his subordinates in attending their regular legitimate duties etc.

2. In his representation 2nd read above Sri G. Panduranga Rao, the then Deputy Transport Commissioner has submitted his Written Statement of Defence stating that he has issued several instructions not to allow the private persons, strengthened help desk and also posted two security guards at main gate to restrict the entry of unauthorized persons and requested to drop further action against him.

3. In the letter 3rd read above, the Transport Commissioner, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad has stated that Sri G.Panduranga Rao, while working as Deputy Transport Commissioner has done good work both in the office as well as outdoor work including enforcement; that the conscious and concerted efforts put forth by him in achieving the targets to the District are commendable; and keeping in view of the good work done by him recommended to consider the representation of Sri G.Panduranga Rao.

4. Government after careful examination of the matter has opined that the charged officer was working as Deputy Transport Commissioner at the time of surprise check and thus he is not immediate supervisory officer to supervise his subordinates as there are two more level officers under the control of Deputy Transport Commissioner i.e., Regional Transport Officer and Administrative Officer that the functions of the Deputy Transport Commissioner are multifarious and he has to play various roles in discharge of his official duties and he cannot sit in the office alone; that the Department has to encourage the sincere and hardworking officers and therefore decided to drop further action against Sri G. Panduranga Rao, now working as Joint Transport Commissioner & Secretary, Regional Transport Authority, Hyderabad.
